AMERICAN BOMBERS ATTACK ENEMY BASES IN PHILIPPINES

YANK FLIERS IN SMASHING AIR ASSAULTS

Japanese-Occupied Bases At Manila, Cebu and Davao Objects of Smashing Attacks

TWO TRANSPORTS HIT

United States Army headquarters in Australia, April 15.—(P)—Thirteen big American bombers operating from Australia make smashing attacks on Japanese bases and shipping at Manila, Cebu, Davao and Batangas in the Philippine islands Monday and Tuesday, it was announced today. The communiqué said "enemy shipping, docks and aircraft were destroyed and damaged in an American air attack in the Philippines area April 13 and 14. The flight consisted of three B-17's and 10 B-25's under personal command of Brig. Gen. Ralph Royce. Nichols Field, Batangas, Cebu and Davao were attacked."

At Nichols Field, at Manila, hangars were destroyed and runways damaged, the announcement said. At Davao, in the southern part of Mindanao island, one bomber was destroyed and several were damaged; two transports were hit and one was probably sunk, one seaplane was shot down and two others were damaged. Troop concentrations were attacked and docks and warehouses damaged.

At Cebu, in the central group of islands where the Japanese have made their most recent attempts at occupation, three transports were sunk and two others hit. In addition there were several near misses on other vessels, three planes were shot down and several were damaged on the ground. Considerable damage also was done to the docks.

(There are some 7,000 islands in the Philippines, and only a few of them have been occupied by the Japanese. To attack from Australia, nearest known bases of the Americans, the planes would have had to fly 2,000 miles to reach Manila and 1,400 miles to reach Davao.)

(Whether the raiding force was sprung from Australia, the Philippines or some other base, it was the first striking action to make good Gen. MacArthur's declaration upon his arrival in Australia from the Philippines less than a month ago: "I came through and I will return.")

The operation was commanded by Brigadier General Ralph Royce, an announcement by Lieutenant General George H. Brett, commander of United Nations air forces in the southwest Pacific, disclosed.

(Two days ago the Tokyo radio broadcast a Dome dispatch from Manila reporting that "three American planes yesterday made an unsuccessful attempt to carry out a raid on the city (of Manila) although bombs were said to have been dropped.")

The bombers had hardly come to a standstill on the runway on returning to their base somewhere in Australia when Brig. Gen. Rush Lincoln, representing the United Nations air commander, Lieut. Gen. George H. Brett, rushed up and handed General Royce the Distinguished Flying Cross, as (Turn to Page Nine)

RAILROADS RESTRICT THE USE OF PASSES

Washington, April 15.—(P)—Restrictions sharply limiting the use of passes for passenger travel have been put into effect by the nation's railroads, an official of the Association of American Railroads said today.

While each railroad is handling the matter individually, the A. A. R. spokesman said all carriers had put restrictive regulations into operation.

Heavy troop movements by railroads and the increased use of railroads by the public because of the tire and gasoline shortages caused the carriers to curtail the use of passes.

WAR BULLETINS

Washington, April 15.—(P)—The war department announced today that women would be recruited for the civilian ranks of the army signal corps to help meet an urgent need for engineers and technicians.

Chungking, April 15.—(P)—China's foreign trade has been hampered, but by no means crushed, by closing of the Burma supply road from Japanese-occupied Rangoon, the finance ministry stated today.

Rome (From Italian Broadcasts), April 15.—(P)—The high command reported "lively air activity" over the north African front today and said Italian airmen battled with greatly superior British flight forces.

Cairo, Egypt, April 15.—(P)—The British Middle East command reported today that a British column which engaged a superior enemy armed force of 30 tanks and self-propelled guns Monday burned out two tanks and damaged five.

Tokyo (From Japanese Broadcasts), April 15.—(P)—Japanese warships operating close to the shore of India that the sailors could see and white forts, sank 15 large enemy merchantmen in less than an hour on the morning of April 6 in a surprise attack on a British convoy, a Japanese naval commander said today.

MacArthur In Full Command Curtin States

BY C. YATES McDANIEL
United States Army Headquarters in Australia, April 15.—(P)—Australian Prime Minister John Curtin heartily concurred today in President Roosevelt's statement that General Douglas MacArthur is in supreme command of the United Nations' forces in the southwest Pacific.

The general's own headquarters, however, apparently was without direct information to that effect, and a statement of a headquarters spokesman appeared to indicate that uncertainty as to his status persisted.

Curtin made unmistakably clear that in Australia's view MacArthur is supreme commander of all Allied forces in the southwest Paciety.

London, April 15.—(P)—Well-informed circles in Berlin say that General Henri Dentz, former French commander in Syria and commander of Paris when the Germans entered the French capital, will reorganize the French army and make important changes in the general staff. Chicago, April 15.—(P)—Illinois Republicans renominated Senator C. Vayland Brooks, pre-war isolationist, in yesterday's primary while Democrats chose Congressman Raymond S. McKelough, firm supporter of President Roosevelt during four terms in the house, to oppose Brooks in November.

Incumbent congressmen seeking renomination fared well. Of the 26 members of the Illinois delegation, ten had opposition, ten were automatically renominated without contests and six either retired or ran for other offices. Eight of the ten running with opposition were leading and appeared likely to win.

A landslide gave Brooks the nomination over Warren Wright, state treasurer who centered his campaign on his announcement of approval of the Roosevelt administration's foreign policy.

INVADERS 30 MILES FROM OIL SOURCES

Japs Claim Sinking of 15 Large Merchant Ships in Surprise Attack on British Convoy

CORREGIDOR POUNDED

BULLETIN
Washington, April 15.—(P)—The United States has held up shipments of non-military supplies to French North Africa pending clarification of the situation in Vichy. This was disclosed today by acting Secretary of States Welles, who told a press conference that two ships in New York harbor loaded with supplies for North Africa, which were about to sail in accordance with an agreement announced last week, would be held in port. Arrangements to send a Red Cross ship with milk and children's layettes to unoccupied France also have been held in abeyance, he said.

By the Associated Press
Tokyo naval quarters asserted today that Japanese warships operating close to the shores of India had sunk 15 large merchant ships in less than an hour in a surprise attack April 6 on a British convoy, while on the critical Burma war front British and Chinese troops again were forced to retreat.

British headquarters conceded that Japanese invasion columns were now within 30 miles of the central Burma oil fields, chief source of China's oil supplies.

"Yesterday enemy pressure was increased over the whole front and fierce fighting was taking place," a British communiqué said.

In Tokyo, a Japanese naval commander declared Japanese warships boldly sailed so close to the Indian coast that the sailors could see hills and white forts in closing in on the big British convoy.

The attack emphasized anew Prime Minister Churchill's statement that Japan now virtually controls the vital waters of the Indian ocean—in a position either to prey on Allied supply lines or to attempt a seaborne invasion of India.

In the Philippines, a Tokyo broadcast said, Japanese bombers and heavy artillery on the Bataan coast joined in a violent bombardment of siege-bound Corregidor island fortress, in Manila bay, silencing an American battery and seriously damaging fortifications. The broadcast also asserted that "enemy remnants fleeing from the vicinity of Cebu City," in the (Turn to Page Nine)

Sub Program Is Answer To Enemy Threat

Washington, April 15.—(P)—A new $800,000,000 submarine construction program to give the United States the undersea striking power for a crippling blow at Japan's long Pacific supply route is being presented to congress.

The program provides for 170,000 tons of undersea craft, which would allow for more than 100 of the present 1,500-ton cruiser type submarines. Sixty-five of this type already have been authorized under the 1940 supplementary program, and the navy last October had 155 submarines in service.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) announced yesterday he was introducing legislation for the program, but said that for reasons of naval strategy he would not divulge the number of undersea craft to be built under its provisions.

"It will go a long way," he said, "toward providing supremacy for the United States in undersea warfare, if we haven't already got it."

Success of American submarines now operating in the Pacific and Indian oceans against Japanese troops and supply convoys was believed to have led to development of the new program. Submarine commanders have reported sinking or damaging 58 Japanese naval and supply ships.

Community Takes On a Gala Appearance For Big Parade

Cooperation of All Including Weatherman Asked By Committee

BANKS WILL BE OPEN

The entire community took on a gala appearance today as the people of Warren and Warren county prepared to take part in the big "Three-in-One" Victory Parade this evening, starting promptly at 7:15 o'clock.

Business places throughout the borough displayed their flags in preparation for the procession which will launch the Pledge for Victory and Salvage for Victory campaigns, as well as celebrate Army Day.

Last minute preparations were completed early today and members of the committee in charge of tonight's program turned their eyes skyward, hoping for as complete cooperation from the weather man as has been received from all those participating in the parade. Latest indications were that the weather would be favorable for the parade.

Those in charge of the procession emphasized this afternoon the fact that the signal for the start of the parade would be given promptly at 7:15 o'clock. Forming of the parade will start at 6:30 and everyone has been asked to be in place not later than 7 o'clock.

On page 6 of this issue is the complete lineup for the parade as it was at press time this afternoon. Everyone taking part will save time by clipping the parade orders for reference in finding his or her place in the line of march. Banks of the borough will be open during the evening to outline plans for the Pledge for Victory (Turn to Page Nine)

Little Delay In Conversion Of Industries

Washington, April 15.—(P)—Philip D. Reed, industry branches chief under the War Production Board, told senate investigators today that there had not only been no delay in changing over civilian industry to war production but that "American industry is being rapidly and ruthlessly converted to the awful business of war."

Reed, youthful-looking chairman of the board of the General Electric Company, testified before the senate defense investigating committee in reply to contentions by Robert R. Guthrie, resigned WPB textiles chief, that Reed had contributed to delay in conversion of civilian industries.

Asserting that Guthrie's testimony contained "inaccuracies and falsehoods," Reed said that the controversy which led to his resignation developed because Guthrie was "incompetent to handle men" and under his administration differences of opinion were permitted to "degenerate into personal issues" leading to a "seriously demoralized condition of his branch."

Reed contended that a "grand and courageous achievement" had been recorded by WPB in stopping manufacture of major articles for civilian use, such as automobiles, radios and refrigerators.

He added that "there is about to be issued another drastic order dealing with literally hundreds of minor metal items" which would "order the use of iron and steel or their metallic substitutes stopped as of an early date."

Social Justice Faces the Possibility of Being Barred From Mails

ATTACK WAR EFFORT

Washington, April 15.—(P)—Accused of violating the espionage act by making a "substantial contribution to a systematic and unscrupulous attack upon the war effort," the national weekly Social Justice today faced the possibility of being barred from the mails.

Postmaster General Frank O. Walker late yesterday ordered the Royal Oak, Mich., postmaster to withhold the publication from the mails until officials at Washington determine its mailability, a procedure which officials said barred the tabloid from the mails immediately, and set a hearing for April 29 on whether the papers mailing privileges should be revoked.

The Rev. Charles E. Coughlin, who helped found the weekly in 1935 but who said he no longer was its editor, owner or publisher, challenged Attorney General Francis Biddle to "summon me to Washington" to defend it.

Biddle, author of the charges against the weekly, declared in a letter to Walker that it had mirrored "the enemy propaganda war being waged against this country from abroad."

From the Shrine of the Little Flower at Royal Oak, Father Coughlin, who campaigned against President Roosevelt in 1936, said he would be happy for an opportunity to answer the charges.

Bicyclist Is Hit By Auto Near Ludlow

Stacy Carter, Jr., 11, of Ludlow, was painfully injured about four o'clock yesterday afternoon when a bicycle which he was riding figured in a collision with a Ford sedan, operated by Archie P. Dickinson, of Kane, on U. S. Route 6, about one-half mile west of Ludlow.

According to Pvt. K. E. McCoy of the state motor police, who investigated the crash, Dickinson was proceeding east, while the youth was riding along the berm in the opposite direction.

Just as the motorist was about to pass the boy, the latter suddenly started to make a "U" turn in the road. The front of the bicycle struck the left front fender of the car, throwing the Carter boy to the pavement.

The boy received a severe laceration of the scalp and suffered a slight concussion. He was removed to his home after being treated by a physician. His condition is reported as good today.

LEGION MEET

On Tuesday at 1 p. m. the American Legion Auxiliary met for a luncheon dinner at the home of Mrs. Earl Walter. This was followed by a business meeting. It was voted to order 1500 poppies for Poppy Day, May 25; also to order the Auxiliary medal award to be given the outstanding girl in the junior graduating class at commencement time. Plans were made for a China relief drive. Youngsville has been given a quota of $250 for this worthy cause. Warren Kay is general chairman of the community. He has asked that the Auxiliary do the soliciting.

An important Community Chest campaign meeting will be held Friday afternoon, April 17, at 4:30 o'clock when the Public Employees Group chairmen meet with Holger N. Elmquist, chairman of this division in the Warren Bank and Trust Company.

Appointments to this division were made during the past week by H. D. Kopf, general chairman of the campaign. Holger N. Elmquist, cashier of the Warren Bank and Trust Company and a member of the Chest board of directors, will head this important campaign committee and has named the following individuals to assist him as group chairmen: R. F. Hemingway, chairman federal employees; T. H. Milenius, chairman state employees; D. E. Schuler, chairman county employees; Forest W. Waite, chairman borough employees; and John G. Rossman, chairman of the schools division.

"We have made a very definite analysis of the production from the public employee departments last year," Mr. Elmquist stated, "and although these groups are not as much affected as industry by the war production program, we believe that greater returns are possible this year because of the organization work now underway. The public employees have always been most generous in their support of the Community Chest. They seem to realize definitely the value of our member agencies to our city. I feel confident they will respond generously to our appeal this year in view of their knowledge in the work which the agencies will be called upon to perform during these times of national emergency."

The Division B committee is meeting this afternoon in Room 312 of the Warren Bank and Trust Company building.

Heading Division B is E. H. Ley, of the E. H. Ley Insurance Agency, and a member of the Community Chest board, whose appointment was announced yesterday by H. D. Kopf, general chairman. Mr. Ley has for a number of years been active in all civic affairs and last year was chairman of the professional division in the Chest appeal.

In announcing the appointment of Mr. Ley, Mr. Kopf said that Division B this year includes in the neighborhood of some 130-odd concerns whose employees generally number twenty or less.

"For this reason," he said, "it is essential that we have a good salesman to head this important campaign division. We are eliminating the mercantile, automotive, financial and industrial divisions this year and are combining them into 'A' and 'B' committees. I am particularly delighted with Mr. Ley's acceptance and with those appointments he has made to his committee thus far."

Mr. Ley has announced the following group chairmen: Group B-1, George S. Frantz; Group B-2, Alan H. Templeton; Group B-3, Earle G. Flohr; Group B-4, Myron E. Jewell; Group B-5, E. M. Branch.

On Monday the Women's Division team captains met at headquarters and arranged for completion of their respective team organizations, while the chain store committee completed its plans at a meeting in the Warren National Bank building at the same time. Yesterday afternoon the Division "A" committee, which comprises the largest concerns in Warren, met at the Conewango Club under the chairmanship of C. T. Conarro.

Local Scouts Have Responsibility In Present War Effort

The Boy Scout movement has responsibilities in the Civilian Defense program, according to an agreement existing between them and the National Office of Civilian Defense. Some of these responsibilities are: training of air raid messengers, organization and operation of a dispatching service, emergency service training for leaders, promotion and operation of activities which prepare boys and young men for emergency service, intensified work on all Scout skills which have emergency service value, and intensified valuation of the Scout movement.

Already 178 messengers have been assigned to air raid posts and plans for the dispatching service, which has just been requested by the O. C. D., are being made. An emergency service training course is now in operation and leaders are working on the material in their regular troop meetings. The summer camping program will emphasize the erection of emergency shelters, food preparation, sanitation and refugee care. Extension of the program will provide additional numbers trained and prepared to serve in such assignments as boys under adult leadership can be expected to competently fulfill.

ACCIDENT REPORT MADE

During the month of March there were nine accidents in Warren county with three people injured in two of these, as compared to seven accidents in March last year in which eight people were injured. Boro Scouts Taking Part In Programs

This week is a busy week for Boy Scout troops with two major activities taking place in addition to the regular program. All Scouts of the borough as well as a number of troops in the county are expected to take part in tonight's parade and except in two towns where special arrangements have been made, every Scout will take part in Saturday's Salvage for Victory program.

For the parade tonight all Scouts and leaders are asked to meet at 7:00 o'clock sharp at the corner of Fourth and Hickory streets.

For Saturday's salvage activity Scouts will meet at 12:45 o'clock at the Post Office Garage, foot of Market street. Leaders point out that the salvage program is a part of the responsibility assigned to the Boy Scout movement by the National Office of Civilian Defense and that participation in the program is a patriotic duty.

"Minute Man" Flag Goes to Firm Here

At an appropriate ceremony at the Warren Axe and Tool Company shortly after noon on Monday, a "Minute Man" flag was presented to the employees by Ernest Miller representing the Speakers Committee of the War Savings Committee of Warren and Forest counties.

More than 100 men were present and Mr. Miller described briefly the importance of regular and continuous purchase of War Savings Bonds and Stamps, congratulating the employees on their more than 90% participation in the Pay-Roll Allotment Plan for such purchases. Mr. Miller also outlined the value of these securities both from an investment angle and their usefulness after the war for individuals and for the purpose of providing employment after war production has ceased.

The flag was accepted on behalf of the company and employees by H. P. Stone, president, who suggested that as many employees as possible participate in the Victory Parade this evening. As a result, several veterans of 1917-18 will lead a sizeable group of employees who will take part in this event.

FLAG ETIQUETTE

With a parade scheduled for this evening and other events of a patriotic nature on the calendar during the coming months, right now would be a good time for every reader to brush up a little so that they may be better informed on details relative to flag etiquette.

It is the duty of every citizen, regardless of his station in life, to know the correct method of showing his respect to Old Glory.

In this particular instance, we might add a word, that allowing a flag to hang out overnight does not come within the category of proper respect for the colors.

Flag etiquette rules are:

During the ceremony of hoisting or lowering the flag or when the flag is passing in a parade or in review, all persons present should face the flag and stand at attention.

Men not in uniform should remove their headress with their right hand and hold it to the left shoulder, the hand being over the heart. Women should salute by placing right hand over heart. The salute to the flag in a moving column is rendered the moment the flag passes.

Do not permit disrespect be shown to the flag. Do not let the flag touch the ground.

Do not drape the flag over the hood, top, sides, or back of any vehicle. When displayed from an automobile it should be from a staff firmly affixed.

Do not display the flag on a float in a parade except from a staff. Do not use the flag as a covering for a ceiling. Do not carry the flag flat or horizontally but always aloft and free.

Do not use the flag for any purpose lacking in dignity and respect.

These are general rules covering use of, and respect to the American flag.

It is noted that in some instances the flag is being displayed regularly at homes where there are sons in the service.

"WAR OF SURVIVAL"

The "War of Survival" is the tentative choice of President Roosevelt as a name for the current war, on the basis of information assed along Tuesday to the ambassadors and ministers of the Latin American republics.

If the Axis powers are victorious we do not survive! Be prepared to sign a "Pledge for Victory" when called upon.

Here's what the Treasury Pledge campaign aims to do:

THE OBJECT—To increase sale of War Savings Bonds and Stamps among the 48,000,000 income earners in the nation through voluntary pledges to save a specified percentage of their incomes to buy U. S. War Savings Bonds and Stamps.

THE METHOD—House to house canvass or other means of contacting every income receiver and personally offering him an opportunity to help his country by voluntarily signing his pledge card.

THE DATES—From April 16th to April 23rd, 1942.

THE ORGANIZATION—Volunteer workers through Minute Men, civic, service, patriotic, political and other groups and organizations. Most of the actual interviewing will be done in Warren County by our organization of Air Raid Wardens.

THE COOPERATION—These volunteers are serving their country. They are giving their time and their money to the pledge campaign. Cooperate with them by receiving them courteously when they call on you either to obtain your pledge or to take you to a central registration booth.

LET'S HAVE A "MACARTHUR ROAD!"

This idea isn't original with us, but we think it is such a swell one we're passing it along in the hope that it may meet with approval of proper officials who may take action necessary to make the change.

Why not call the Warren-Jamestown road, from Pennsylvania avenue to the state line near Kiantone, "MacArthur Road!"

The change would not involve any pioneer or historic names, and certainly would be an appropriate and very acceptable substitute for "The Warren-Jamestown road!"

Not so many Warren people are driving to work, but just as many have to be driven.

The next big event will be the registration of men in the 18 to 64 group!

After the parade buy War Savings Bonds and Stamps!

As we go to press the weatherman is on the spot!

Look where the Pirates are!

"Get Tough---I Can Take It!"

WASHINGTON IN WARTIME

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—Answering the mail:

A. E. K., Bremerton, Wash.; E. H., Topeka, Kan., and others—I have had so many requests for additional information as to what individuals can do to aid in the airplane model building program (in which more than 500,000 scale models are to be built for the American armed forces to study in preliminary training) I can do NO more than outline the answers.

There are more than 50 different types of fighting planes and the Navy alone needs at least 10,000 models of each for aircraft recognition training and gunnery sighting practice. Since these models must be accurate to the thirty-second of an inch (the scale is one to 72 — so that a model seen at 35 feet is identical with a real plane seen at just under half a mile), the Navy has not seen fit to turn this over to the general public, unsupervised. The cost of inspection and rejection, in such case, probably would be more than the cost of letting contracts to private firms.

THEREFORE, Secretary of the Navy Knox has turned his demands over to the Office of Education and Commissioner John W. Studebaker already has it well under way. Working with state departments of education, he has placed the responsibility on the high school manual training students. The reason for this is twofold: (1) The Navy needs half a million models immediately and there probably is no other established set-up through which it can get them so quickly; (2) these are solid wood, non-flying models and require delicate lathe work, planing and carving that the average model airplane enthusiast is not equipped to turn out.

However, the Navy's demands are small compared to what will be necessary when civilian defense launches its drive to teach air raid spotters the silhouettes, altitudes, flying speeds, etc., of every fighting plane. Therefore, it is probable that thousands of manual training teachers will follow the lead some already have taken in soliciting the aid of non-school woodworkers and model building fans. In some cities, high school woodworking and manual training instructors have organized model building clubs and this is certain to spread. Considering the wear and tear on models built on a one to 72 scale, and the rapid expansion of our armed forces, model building is an activity that is bound to last for the duration.

Students and other workers on this project pay no costs, nor are they given remunerations. Plans and specifications are furnished by the U. S. Office of Education. Wood and other supplies are furnished by the schools and by civic organizations.

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Army Quiz:

(Q) How did the term "brass hat" originate? . . . (Q) What is the difference between a Color, a Standard, and an Ensign? . . .

(Q) If the President of the United States gets a 21-gun salute, how many guns does an ex-president get? . . . (Q) How many types of Court-martials are there? And which can impose the death penalty? . . . (Q) Which is the senior service, the Army or the Navy? . . . (Q) What is the "queen of battles"? Only one man in U. S. military history has held the rank of General of the Armies of the United States. . . . Who was that man?

How about it? Can you answer these? They're duck soup for an army man, routine information. . . . But to the public, army intelligence is pretty much of a closed book. . . . With the help of Lieutenant Colonel A. C. M. Azy, now on duty at West Point, let's open this book. He wrote it. It's The Army Officer's Manual, just out, made necessary by the unprecedented changes the Selective Service Act of 1940 made in our army. I know you're a civilian to-day, but what about tomorrow?

This is going to be a long war. . . . Millions of men in civilian life to-day will be in uniform before it is over. . . . That's why I thought these questions and answers would interest you. . . . Here are a few:

THE term "brass hat" comes from the British custom of identifying staff officers with gilt ornamentation on their cap visors. The "queen of battles" is the infantry. . . . A Color is carried by dismounted troops and is always four feet, five inches by five feet six inches. . . . A Standard is carried by mounted troops and is three by four feet. . . . An Ensign is flown above boats and ships and may be of any size desired.

There are three types of Court-martials in the United States Army—the General Court-martial, the Special Court-martial, and the Summary Court-martial. . . . Only the General Court-martial may impose the death penalty. . . . In time of war, the death penalty for spies is mandatory. . . . Though Congress created the rank of General of the Armies of the United States especially for George Washington, he never held it. . . . His rank remained Commander-in-Chief of the Continental army. . . . Only Pershing has held the rank of General of the Armies of the United States. . . .

The President, ex-Presidents, Monarchs, and the families of reigning royal families are entitled to the 21-gun salute. . . . Ambassadors, the Vice President, and Generals of armies get 19. . . . The Governor General of the Philippines gets 17. . . .

GENERALS and Admirals are equal in rank. . . . The Navy has no equivalent to the Army's Brigadier, but its Rear Admiral is the same as the Army's Major General, and its Vice Admiral is the same as the Army's Lieutenant General. . . . Brigadier Generals wear one star, Major Generals three, full Generals four. . . . We have just two four-star generals, General Marshall, chief-of-staff, and General MacArthur, of whom you may have heard. . . .

THRIFT POLICIES REAFFIRMED ON FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF DEPARTMENT STORE CHAIN

The company has travelled a long road since Mr. Penney's first little store in Kemmerer, Wyoming (right). Now it includes such stores as the company's largest, in Seattle (above), which, in many a single day, does several times the business which the Mother Store did in its first year of operation.

J. C. Penney Company, in Nation-Wide Celebration, Points Out Country's Need For Universal Economy.

In a celebration featuring the historical back round of the business, the J. C. Penney Company marks its fortieth milestone, 1609 stores all over the country are taking part in the celebration, which extends through the month of April. The keynote of the event was set by the founder of the company, Mr. J. C. Penney:

"We have chosen Thrift as the theme of our fortieth anniversary," said Mr. Penney, "because it seems to us particularly timely to stress the need for our return to pioneer simplicity."

"Today America is at war. Now, in wartime, because of the tremendous job ahead of us, we must learn again to work hard and to live simply—to put into the preserving of America what we once put into the building of it—to return to the old ways of thrift and savings that were the general rule at the beginning of this century."

Mr. Penney tells of his many planned economies in the conduct of his business—economies, many of them small, which added up to a successful and profitable business. One such economy was Mr. Penney's decision to offer no delivery service to his customers. In this connection he remarked, "My customers carried their packages from Penney's Golden Rule Store; and they did it gladly because they knew that, my No Deliveries policy helped them to buy for less."

"I resolved that nothing should ever be wasted in my store. Time and energy, string and paper, all were carefully conserved to avoid any expense that might boost prices."

The management of the Penney Company, which in forty years has grown from one store to 1609, still adheres to the policies laid down by Mr. Penney at the very outset. Quoting Mr. Earl Corder Sans, president of the company and lifelong associate of Mr. Penney: "The Penney Company still believes in, and practices, the thrifty methods of 1902. It stands ready to help America save at a time when savings are essential!"

"We feel the Penney Company is well equipped to make a substantial contribution toward the Thrift and Savings of the nation—because the Penney Company knows from long experience what 'Thrift' is all about. Thrift is nothing new to the Penney Company; it is our stock in trade. When the Penney business was founded, in 1902, hard work and spartan living were the general rule. Our first little store in Kemmerer, Wyoming, was dedicated to Thrift, and all through the years, as our business has grown, Thrift has continued to be our guiding principle." This thrift theme appears in advertising and window displays in Penney stores all over the country, together with messages reminiscent of his early store days by Mr. Penney.

Back in 1902, when Mr. Penney founded his first store, he found that many people who could ill afford it made a practice of buying everything on credit, and "paying up on pay day." He came to the conclu-

Just SCRAPS

From the Salvage for Victory Committee

Warren County is really getting "in the scrap", judging by the fine attendance at Friday's Big County Salvage Roundup. The small Courtroom in the Court House was fairly well filled by Chairmen of Committees, Chairmen for the various outlying communities, workers, and interested spectators.

B. S. Knabenshue conducted the meeting, explaining the method of organization and the job to be done by each Committee. Many questions were asked and answered. Local junk dealers who were present explained some of the points regarding the items to be collected and the method of collection.

Mrs. E. P. Wroth, whose fine job in organizing the Consumer's Divisions was the subject of much comment, outlined the plans of her Committee with reference to the telephone campaign. Mrs. Wroth is Co-Chairman of the Central Committee.

All questionable points were cleared up during the discussion.

Tonight's the night of the Big Parade. Look for the Salvage Trucks. There will be from forty to fifty of them, all donated by patriotic Warren firms or citizens to help in the Salvage Drive Saturday, April 18. Each one will be decorated by two big emblems, one on each side of the cab; in the form of a big V. One emblem on each truck will advertise the Salvage for Victory drive; the other the Pledge for Victory War Bond Drive. You'll see these trucks at your curbside again Saturday after 1 P. M.

Ting-a-ling-a-ling! One day this week your telephone will go like that. When you answer it, you will be greeted by one of the 143 patriotic Warren women who have volunteered their services to conduct a telephone campaign for Salvage. These callers will outline the plan of collection for Saturday, April 18; tell you what types of things are wanted; answer any questions regarding methods or means. Don't hesitate to ask any question that may be puzzling you. That's what they're there for.

Speakers have already carried the story of how Warren County is "getting in the scrap" to many public groups; including the Rotary Club, Men's Club of the Episcopal Church, Foremen's Club of the Y. M. C. A., North Warren Civic Club, Lion's Club, and Kiwanis Club. The High School Assembly was also addressed twice last Friday. This valuable work has been conducted by O. A. Pressel and R. W. Reynolds. Speakers who have patriotically donated their services are: Brackett Ayers, R. W. Reynolds, Harold Hampson, Jim Frantz and Warren Stone.

Seven addresses are to be made through the cooperation of Warner Brothers, in addition to the above. These will be at the Library Theatre April 16, 20 and 24; at the Columbia April 18 and 21. Two of the above dates are Bank Nights.

Trailers are also to be run at both local theatres to drive home the Salvage message. Patronize the theatres and watch for the messages on the screen.

Mrs. Wroth tells us the 143 women conducting the telephone campaign will call a total of 2,999 names. Too bad they can't dig up another somewhere.

The sound truck in the Big Parade is operated by Norman Scholton of the Warren Amusement Co., who is donating his services. The truck is loaned by Metzger-Wright Co.

Listen to spot announcements all this week over Radio Station WJTN, Jamestown. These announcements promoting the Warren County Salvage for Victory Drive are very kindly donated by the Jamestown Station in conjunction with Jamestown's Salvage drive.

Watch (or rather, listen) for a Big Surprise in the Big Parade! It's Ben Kinnear's secret and we're not giving it away. But you'd better get your fingers ready to stick in your ears! You're going to think you're right out there on the front line!

Scouts Will Take Part in Parade Today

All Boy Scouts of Troop 12 requested by Scoutmaster Charles Cable to meet promptly at 4 tonight at Fourth and Hick streets to participate in the parade.

At its regular troop meeting last night in the First Lutheran parsonage, this group renovated workroom and salvage materials were made ready for collection.

Ralph Huber passed pacing test. Rowell S. Hoff passed the remaining portion of his first class work study, started a week ago.

Sig Decker passed firebuilding test. Two new Scouts attended last week, Charles Regnar and Clarence Mader, and the advance rifle team held practice at State Armory.

On Saturday, April 18, all troop members are to meet at 12:45 the foot of Market street to take part in the salvage collection project. The 35 trucks will be manned by five Boy Scouts to collect newspapers, magazines and other salvage materials throughout the borough.

Next Monday's meeting will again be held out of doors, boys to meet at headquarters 6:15 p. m. to be taken to the J. Billstone lease on the Warren-Kuzma road, taking their suppers with them.

More potent than the venom rattlesnakes is that of the blawidow siders.

Formerly, the Sabbath began 3 p. m. Saturday, and lasted until daybreak Monday.

190,775 Fans Witness Opening Games of Diamond Season

Ruffing, Muncrief Toss Three Hitters; Bums, Bucs Triumph

The Baseball Standings

BY JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Sports fans now have had their first taste of a tonic labelled "Major League Baseball, an Antidote for War Worries" and the dose given 190,775 persons in eight cities yesterday had an altogether agreeable flavor.

At Washington, before Vice President Wallace and 31,000 other fans, old Charley (Red) Ruffing embarked on his 18th American League season by hurling a magnificent three-hit 7-0 shutout for the Yankees against the Senators.

At New York 42,653 fans, the biggest turnout of the day, watched the Dodgers down the Giants, 7-5, in the Polo Grounds.

The Chicago Cubs nosed out the Cards, 5-4, by bunting two runs in the first inning and three more in the sixth off Mort Cooper. Manager Jimmy Wilson of the Bruns also earned the distinction of being the first pilot thumbed out of a game by an umpire.

The Reds were set down, 4-2, by the Pittsburgh Pirates as big Max Butcher outpitched Bucky Walters, six hits to seven.

Johnny Cooney, the 41-year-old handyman of the Boston Braves, took over first base and provided a timely single and a double to help beat the Phils, 2-1.

Ted Williams, the batting hero of last season with a .406 average, opened this campaign with a three-run homer on his first trip to the plate and also collected two singles. He knocked home five runs as the Boston Red Sox overpowered the Philadelphia Athletics, 8-3.

The Cleveland Indians let loose a war whoop calculated to chill some of their rivals for the American League's first division as they trounced the Detroit Tigers, 5-2.

Likewise the St. Louis Browns made an early bid for recognition as a first division contender by chopping down the Chicago White Sox, 3-0, in the day's tightest hurling duel. Bob Muncrief held the White Sox to three hits, gave no walks, let no one get past first and faced only 28 men. In rebuttal, John Rigney rationed the Browns to five safeties and kept the score to 1-0 till the ninth.

Today and tomorrow the clubs will remain at their opening day stands, but Friday the teams which now are on the road will get their chance to bow before the home fans.

Billiard Match Is Presented at Elks

In an exhibition of three-cushion billiards last evening at the Elks Club, Joe Chamaco, former world's champion and present titleholder of Mexico and South America, defeated "Pike" Peterson, 50 to 14, in 50 innings. Following the match he gave an exhibition of trick and fancy shots.

Prior to the exhibition at the Elks Club, Chamaco also appeared at the Warren Billiard Academy.

SPORT SPATTERINGS

After spending two months to prepare for the baseball season, most of the major league teams, says Whitney Martin (P sports scribe), probably will need another month to recover from the grind . . . Martin cites various obstacles which the diamond dandies ran up against this year to account for his reasoning . . . They slept and survived in muggy Pullman cars, were sidetracked while the army trains went through in various areas . . . Played exhibition games, an enormous string of them, in towns where the good citizens didn't think so much of the big timers nor baseball . . . Really were under pressure every minute . . . So, if you're favorite in the race this year, seems to be left at the post and doesn't start to hustle until May, perhaps herein lies the answer . . . Nothing new on the local baseball situation, and we must admit now that there won't be for a few weeks due to more circumstances . . . But efforts to revive the Sunset League aren't going to be forgotten while this typewriter jockey still can punch the keys . . . Meanwhile, what about softball this summer . . . Looks like a time when this sport could find a path back to glory and the spotlight hereabouts . . . Aside to the softball vets . . . Let's hear a little talk and get things organized . . .

Looking back to 1941 in sports, and reminiscing some queer happenings that probably won't be repeated this year again . . . The Dodgers had the Yankees whipped with 27 men retired, and lost the game as Mickey Owen fumbled the third strike on Henrich, which would have been the third out . . . Billy Conn had the heavyweight title within an arm's length, only to get careless long enough to take Joe Louis' sleeping powder . . . In the area, Jamestown High drubbed Warren, Warren tied Bradford, and yet the Owl gridders romped over the Red and Green by a 20-7 count . . . Sharon backed into the PIAA eliminations, and became the only team able to top Bradford in basketball . . . Of course, that really happened this year, not in 1941 . . . We see that Johnny Nelson, Jr., of the Bradford Era, is in Harrisonburg, Va., along with the PONY League Bees . . . Also getting a tan . . . Chuck Clawson is reported to be doing well with the Falcons . . . at his catching position . . . Two good sport articles that should be "musts" for sport fans . . . Mickey Owen's story about the third strike biz in the latest Collier's . . . A tale about Branch Rickey in Time magazine . . .

REC. CENTER WINS HONORS IN CITY LOOP

The Recreation Center quint took all honors at the Arcade last night as the City League again blossomed forth with some inflated scores. The Rees came within three pins of matching their own high team game record of 1108 when they hit 1105 in the third trial, and had high team total for the night with 2933.

It was a determined army of sportsmen that woke up anxiously and excited from their usual comfortable beds to get an early start, some of them having to strike "gold" quickly or not at all because of a day's work also lying ahead.

But, armed with flies, worms, reels, creels and all kinds of rods and other fishing equipment, the boys stole off in the still of the night, all with secret knowledge of places where getting the limit on opening day was a "cinch."

According to figures gathered around the town at the three community offices for selling fishing licenses, 1228 sportsmen have already laid their money on the counter, and have exchanged it for the badges which give them the right to do their prowling, so long as they abide by the fish laws.

Anglers Open Trout Season Confident Of Limit; 1228 Licensed

At five o'clock this morning, Warren county's trout streams, like all others in other counties throughout the Keystone state, were well lined with anglers and well stocked with rainbow, brown and brook trout, the little fishes all set to play a game best known as "tag" with the area experts of field and stream.

It was a determined army of sportsmen that woke up anxiously and excited from their usual comfortable beds to get an early start, some of them having to strike "gold" quickly or not at all because of a day's work also lying ahead.

But, armed with flies, worms, reels, creels and all kinds of rods and other fishing equipment, the boys stole off in the still of the night, all with secret knowledge of places where getting the limit on opening day was a "cinch."

According to figures gathered around the town at the three community offices for selling fishing licenses, 1228 sportsmen have already laid their money on the counter, and have exchanged it for the badges which give them the right to do their prowling, so long as they abide by the fish laws.

Secret Orders BY ELEANOR ATTERBURY

YESTERDAY: Stephanie Merrill no sooner realized that she was much attracted to Capt. Kurt Knudsen than two things happened: Stephanie's cousin Vicky set her cap for Kurt, and Kurt was called to duty with the Air Corps. Now Stephanie is left to the care of Henri de la Page, a friend of her father's, and of her father, who is worried because the war orders in his big plant at Titan are in a suspicious tangle.

Chapter Six
Trouble At Titan

ALL through the long hours at headquarters the next day, Stephanie carried the dull burden of her anxiety for her father. But as the busy hours sped along and no word came from Titan, she began to relax a little. Probably he had been over-tired, over-wrought so that the whole picture had become blacker than it really was. It wasn't like Guy Merrill to be that way. Still, he was under strain. Everybody was.

With a long sigh, Stephanie turned into the drive, then stopped short. There, parked under the old porte-cochere stood the little blue coupe. Her own car with not a scar to show. But—how—

Turning, she fled up the front steps.

"Tsang, who—" she began as she met the old servant in the front hall.

"Gentleman in the front parlor waiting for little Missy," Tsang beamed.

Could it be—Kurt? Her heart picked up momentum as she paused a moment at the parlor. Then, still not sure she could control her leaping excitement, she went in.

The tall man standing before the marble fireplace was not Kurt Knudsen. Stephanie's excitement collapsed like a pricked balloon. Then, recovering politeness, she smiled.

"Hello, Henri. This is a surprise."

He bowed, that strangely foreign little gesture. "A pleasant one, I trust."

Henri would say something like that, Stephanie thought wryly and suppressed a giggle. American boys didn't sound like something out of a novel.

"I suppose I have you to thank that my car is in the drive out there and not marooned in a Peralta garage?"

Henri bowed again. "I was sure you would need it."

"It was very kind of you to bother. And—" hearing her own speech take on airs, she laughed. "You must have crossed some spells with silver to get it done so quickly."

"It was quite simple. With a little—pressure."

Plenty of pressure, she'd wager on that. Henri looked like the kind of man who'd demand service, and get it!

And she was quite right about that. Later, as they stood in the crowded foyer at the Skyline, San Francisco's number one smart-spot for the moment, Henri's "pressure" got him a table practically out of thin air, and a bowing waiter, and pheasant stuffed with wild rice.

Compliments From Henri

STEPHANIE hadn't wanted to accept his invitation to dinner. But after all, he'd been so considerate as to return her car. Naturally she couldn't tell him she'd much prefer spending the evening with a good book.

And now, she thought sipping the sparkling Moselle Henri had ordered, she wasn't sorry she'd come after all. She'd never been in the Skyline before. Campus dates rarely included dinner at ten dollars a plate!

And Henri himself was no slouch. Stephanie was glad she hadn't listened to a perverse whim to wear her uniform. Her "good" brown suit matched her eyes and hair and the gold blouse "did things" for her. She knew she was well dressed and that Henri was proud of her.

"You are very lovely tonight,"

Stephanie, he said then in an answer to her thought. "You are a beautiful woman. Beautiful and intelligent. I assure you, too, it is a very rare combination."

"Thank you," Stephanie murmured, flushing and at the same time, surprisingly aware that his compliments embarrassed but did not thrill her. She glanced at Henri now to see if the flattery was as insincere as it sounded. But the baffling depths of his dark eyes told her nothing.

"You look tired now, my dear," he said with what sounded almost like tenderness. "Perhaps you would rather I took you home."

Stephanie smiled gratefully. "I am tired."

"You work far too hard at your Headquarters," he said. "You've helped her into her car."

"Oh no I don't. Besides, the work is there to be done."

"And I have no doubt that you do it exceptionally well."

Call From Titan

TSANG had the front door opened the moment she and Henri reached the front porch. One glance at that familiar round face roused the anxiety that had lain dormant during the evening.

"Tsang! What is it?"

"Bad, little Missy." He wagged his head. "Telephone lady wants to know how long you'll be."

"How long a distance operator, Stephanie translated, racing to the phone. Dad calling, of course. Trouble at Titan!"

"It took eternities to put the call through. When Stephanie finally heard her father's voice, she cried. "Daddy! Are you all right?"

"Yes. Everything's under control now. Just wanted you to hear from me before you got the news from anyone else and began to worry."

"We caught a fellow trying to fire the boat just after it docked this morning."

"The boat loaded with nitrates?" she gasped. "But how—"

"He'd been smuggled aboard, somehow. I have guards posted everywhere now. He shook his head aboard when the boat left Santiago. Nobody seems to know anything about him."

"But you caught him."

"Sure, but he won't talk. I'm not even sure he has much to tell. Pretty obvious he's just a tool."

"Then that means that whoever is the brains of the plot will probably try out of a novel."

"Probably," Guy Merrill laughed dryly. "But, everything's serene tonight. I probably won't be home for a few days."

"Oh, Daddy, please try to get back. Will you try to get home tomorrow?"

"I'll see. Be a good girl."

"Bye, Dad."

Slowly she replaced the receiver. He'd sounded confident, but if there was still danger—

Turning, she was suddenly aware that Henri had followed her to the door of her father's study, stood now where he couldn't have helped hearing her end of the conversation.

"Forgive me for listening, Stephanie," he apologized instantly coming toward her. "I couldn't avoid hearing and I had realized something was worrying you seriously. Your father is all right now, isn't he?"

"Yes, thank you."

"I'm very glad." He took both her hands in his, looked down at her with a quiet little smile. "And if there is anything I can do at any time to be of service to you, please do not hesitate to ask."

"Why—that's very nice of you, Henri. I don't think there is—"

"You promise me to let me know if you are ever in need of help?" he persisted, bending his head toward her a little.

Stephanie shrugged. "Certainly I'll promise. It's very nice of you to offer."

"My dear, it is the least a friend can do. I know what it means to have someone you love dearly in danger of his life. I hope your father returns soon." He shook his head thoughtfully. "Firing a boat, load of nitrates is dangerous business. I should say."

Reluctant to discuss details with Henri, she was glad when he finally said goodnight.

HOLD EVERYTHING

Becker gained a nice score on the hand shown today. Sitting South, he decided it was important to establish the diamonds before his ace of hearts was forced out. He played the ace of spades on the opening lead and led a small club to the ace. Then he led a diamond to the jack.

This way of developing the suit was based on declarer's lack of the nine-spot, plus the decision that West was long in hearts and probably short in diamonds.

West jumped in with the queen of diamonds and led another spade, which East won and returned the heart. Becker was sure this was a singleton, so he won it once, and led the jack of club. West showed out, but Becker let east win with the queen.

Thus he won three clubs, and the diamond finesse later gave him four tricks in that suit.

On the diplomatic front, France's swing into the camp of Hitler's totalitarian satellites held the spotlight.

In London, a British foreign office spokesman declared bluntly that the re-entry of the No. 1 French collaborationist, Pierre Laval, into the Vichy government had reduced Vichy to the level of a "nickel Balkan state" under the thumb of Adolf Hitler.

In Washington, informed sources generally expected the recall of U. S. Ambassador William D. Leahy, and a high government commentator said frankly that a complete re-examination of American relations with Vichy was "obviously" necessary.

Germany to Reorganize French Army of a non-stop air offensive over the continent, blasted the German-occupied coast where thousands of workers and Nazi soldiers are laboring feverishly to build new fortifications.

The RAF's daylight raids followed night attacks in which "very large" fires were left burning in the Ruhr industrial valley, and all-day attacks against occupied Europe yesterday which set a record of 9½ hours duration.

Germany's Ruhr war foundries, vital to the success of Hitler's spring or summer offensive, now have been under a hail of "hundreds of tons of bombs" for six out of the last 10 nights, the British air ministry said.

Other assaults were directed against Le Havre, Boulogne, Calais, Cap Gris Nez, Hazebrouck and Nazi airdromes in occupied France, and reached as far as Turin, Italy.

3. North Africa—British Middle East headquarters reported sand storms over the Libyan desert battlefield were so intense that Axis planes were seen to bomb one of their own columns. Land fighting was restricted.

Both were fined $100, assessed costs and their respective operator's licenses suspended. Other minor matters were disposed of during the session.

THREE FOREST FIRES

Warm, dry weather during the past two days was partly responsible for a trio of forest fires during the past 48 hours, two of them at Starbuck and the other in the Hatch Run area. The pair at Starbuck were small, destroying about five acres apiece before brought under control. According to the Department of Forests and Waters office here, the Hatch Run fire was more serious. While it destroyed only eight acres before being brought under control, it was in the heart of the slash area, and it was important that it be stopped quickly.

RAPS LABOR LEADERS
Hollidaysburg, April 15—(A)—Major General Edward Martin, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, says he intends to unmask "racketeering chieftains" who pose as labor leaders for "personal profit or political gain."

"In time of war, men who foment unrest because of criminally ulterior motives of their own are imperiling the very lives of our son and my son," he told a Republican meeting last night. "To end their rackets would be a long step forward in our all-out war effort."

Martin said he was opposed to legislation outlawing the right to strike.

"I cannot stress too strongly that it is the American right of every workman to strike when his cause is just," he said. "These rights I will uphold x x x when I am governor of Pennsylvania."

JONES FOR DAVIS

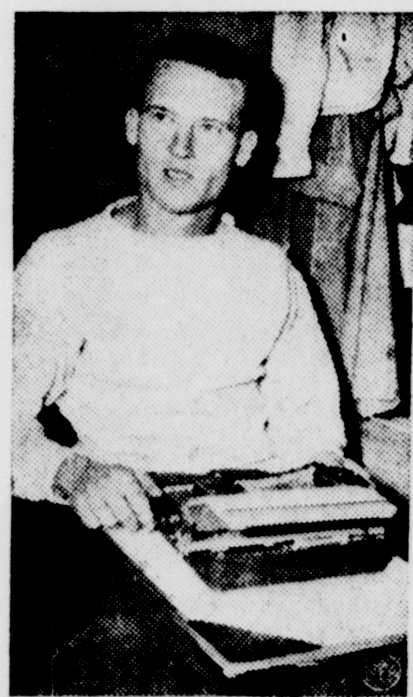

Harrisburg, April 15—(F)—Walter A. Jones, chairman of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission, who unsuccessfully opposed U. S. Senator Joseph F. Guffey for re-election in the 1940 Democratic primary, urged support today for United States Senator James J. Davis, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor.

Jones, Pittsburgh oil man, said in a statement he had watched Davis "lift himself by his own boot-strap until he became a member of the cabinet of three presidents of the United States and has served honorably and creditably as a United States Senator from Pennsylvania."

Before election to the senate, Davis was secretary of labor in the cabinets of President Harding, Coolidge and Hoover.

Nutrition Group of County Has Meeting

Mrs. Allan Frank, of Sugar Grove, conducted the meeting of the Warren County Nutrition Committee held last night at the court house and attended by 14 representatives. As chairman of the group, Mrs. Frank outlined the purposes and duties of the committee.

After some discussion concerning various school lunch programs, it was decided to conduct a survey using the form suggested in a statewide survey of the Pennsylvania Nutrition Council. Mrs. Rose Sigworth was named to head a committee for this purpose.

The need was felt for determining undernourished children of the county and suggestions were made for learning of them. The committee also agreed to cooperate with the state program by learning of the use of enriched bread and flour in the county and members volunteered to survey their stores and submit reports.
